

K-2 Spanish Assistant Teacher:

The Epiphany School of Global Studies seeks a primary grade Spanish immersion assistant teacher for a full time position, beginning in August 2019.

Epiphany is a thriving K-12 independent school in a historic setting, situated along the shores of Eastern North Carolina. We are a college-preparatory community of faith that is committed to creating globally aware students who are prepared to thrive in the world around them. Epiphany's Lower School campus is a lively center of growth, discovery and learning for students in grades K-5.

Successful candidates will:

- demonstrate advanced or native proficiency in Spanish.
- have a high level of comfort working in an independent school setting that allows for innovative teaching, curricular design input, and collaboration with a professional team of educators.
- provide instructional support and assist with the supervision of students under the direction of the classroom's lead teacher in reading, writing, word work, language mechanics, and grammar in a Spanish immersion setting
- demonstrate a willingness to work as a team member
- possess strong Spanish and English communication skills, both written and oral, and engaging interpersonal skills.
- fully embrace the school's mission and demonstrate a love of children

Interested applicants should complete an online application, submit a resume or CV, and a cover letter explaining how he/she matches Epiphany's search criteria. Salary is determined based on education and experience.

A minimum of two years experience in education is recommended and immersion experience is strongly preferred.
