

Part Time Middle School Spanish Teacher

The Epiphany School of Global Studies seeks a Middle School Spanish teacher for a part-time position, beginning in August 2020.

Epiphany is a thriving K-12 independent school in a historic setting, situated along the shores of Eastern North Carolina. We are a college-preparatory community of faith that is committed to creating globally aware students who are prepared to thrive in the world around them. Epiphany's Middle School campus is a lively center of growth, discovery, and learning for students in grades 6-8.

Successful candidates will:

- have a high level of comfort working in an independent school setting that allows for innovative teaching, curricular design input, and collaboration with a professional team of educators.
- Demonstrate advanced or native proficiency in Spanish.
- instruct students in reading, writing, word work, language mechanics, and grammar in a Spanish setting.
- have knowledge of literacy skills in a workshop structure.
- have knowledge of differentiation strategies and experience in meeting individual student needs within a range of skill levels.
- possess strong Spanish and English communication skills, both written and oral, and engaging interpersonal skills.
- fully embrace the school's mission and engage their students using instructional methods that are positive, innovative, appropriate, relevant, and reflective.
- integrate technology, a global focus, elicit critical thinking, and challenge students to continue discovery beyond the classroom.

Interested applicants should complete an online application, submit a resume or CV, and a cover letter explaining how he/she matches Epiphany's search criteria. Salary is determined based on education and experience.

At least two years of experience is recommended.
