I understand that driving a car to school is a freedom of an upper school student at The Epiphany School. The following list delineates the expectations for student drivers on Epiphany's campus:

1. I will abide by all traffic laws and regulations as established by the state of North Carolina.
2. Furthermore, on or around campus (parking lot and surrounding streets), I will not exceed a speed limit of 10 mph.
3. Once I arrive on campus, I will gather my belongings, exit my vehicle and proceed into the campus buildings.
4. I may only return to my car during the day if I have asked for and received administrative approval.
5. I understand that I may not, without proper permission, transport another student.
6. If I fail to abide by these expectations, I will lose this freedom for a designated period of time.
 - a. 1st offense—1 week
 - b. 2nd offense—one semester
 - c. 3rd offense—remainder of the school year
